

GIG CONNECT – Execs on Demand

The “Gig Economy” is changing how businesses manage people and approach recruitment. “Giggers” or contractors are growing globally, and technology and contracting allows access to skilled and experienced people that businesses couldn’t attract, access, or afford before.

We have a nationwide network covering a range of disciplines, and we specialise in tourism. Our people have a minimum 10 years experience in their field, and we know them all personally.
